

Cook provides the world
with balloon
angioplasty
innovations.

And one state
is helping them

expand

Cook Medical pioneered the development of heart catheters and angioplasty devices, innovations in cardiac care that save thousands of lives annually. Today they continue to blaze new trails in the med-tech world. So where does a company like Cook find the best resources for growth and success? Right here in Indiana.

Fact is, Indiana is a medical marvel, with world-renowned research universities and medical centers that are models for the rest of the country. With our bright minds, skilled workforce and pro-business attitude, it's no wonder Indiana's med-tech companies are so healthy. If you don't think Indiana when you think high-tech, maybe it's time you had a heart to heart with Phyllis McCullough, President and CEO, Cook Inc.
